SISWD also operates and staffs seven reuse centers in their district. Gently used clothing, shoes, books, office supplies, videos/CDs, knick-knacks, and non-upholstered furniture are just a few of the items that are accepted. Donations are provided by the residents of each county. All items within the store are free of charge to all residents within the district.

SISWD provides weekly recyclables collection to over 60 schools throughout seven counties.

SISWD places recycling containers at various locations throughout the district. Since most of the district is rural, stand-alone receptacles allow for recycling in remote parts of the counties without having to drive a great distance to a recycling center. This service is funded by SISWD with collection of materials made by the private sector.

DISASTER DEBRIS:

SISWD partners alongside the Indiana Department of Homeland Security to assist with Disaster Debris Management throughout their district. The role of SISWD is to not only help remove disaster debris but also to assess the degree and expense of the damages to any given region.

SISWD provides assistance to the seven counties in their district to help with costs associated with illegal dumping.
